

Marine Science Seminar Series

Spring Semester, 2008

All seminars are at 12:00 on Fridays in 120 Featherman Hall

January 25

Dr. Win Watson, University of New Hampshire

“The Secret Lives of Lobsters”

February 15

Dr. Renae Brodie, Mount Holyoke College

“Life on the Wedge: Survival Strategies in Larval Estuarine Crabs”

February 22

Dr. Erik Sotka, College of Charleston

“Larval Dispersal and Local Adaptation of Nearshore Marine Invertebrates”

March 7

Dr. Erik Hoffmayer, University of Southern Mississippi

“The Physiological Ecology of Sharks in the Northern Gulf of Mexico:
The Atlantic Sharpnose Shark as a Case Study”

March 28

Dr. Don Bowen, Canadian Department of Fisheries and Oceans

“Reproductive Performance in Female Grey Seals:
Insights from Long-term Studies of Individuals”

April 18

Dr. Gisèle Muller-Parker, Western Washington State University

“Multiple Partners: Lessons from Temperate Anemone Symbioses”

April 25

Dr. Cathy McFadden, Harvey-Mudd College

“Species Boundaries, Genetic Variation and the Quest for a Universal DNA 'Barcode': Lessons from Octocorals”